

The Newfoundland Historical Society

Charting a Course

James Cook in Newfoundland

NIL INTENTATUM RELIQUIT

WEDNESDAY 26 SEPTEMBER 2012 7:00PM

THE ROOMS THEATRE

FREDERICK SMITH

Memorial University / Newfoundland
Historical Society

James Cook and the Royal Navy in Newfoundland

THURSDAY 27 SEPTEMBER 2012 6:30 – 8:30

THE SHIP INN

Duckworth Street

An informal Cook night.

Food service is available, Fish & Chips, anyone?
[Speaker to be announced]

FRIDAY 28 SEPTEMBER 2012 8:00PM

THE ROOMS

Keynote Speaker

Dr. OLAF JANZEN

Division of Arts, Historical Studies
Grenfell Campus, Memorial University

The French Seizure of St. John's in 1762, the British Response, and James Cook

RECEPTION 7:00pm HOSTED BY THE ROOMS PROVINCIAL ARCHIVES

SATURDAY 29 SEPTEMBER

AUDITORIUM, MUN ENGINEERING BUILDING

The auditorium is room EN 2006 and is entered from the main lobby of the building. Parking is free in area 16.

(http://www.mun.ca/campus_map/stjohns/)

10:00 AM GREETINGS

10:15 – 11:00 SPEAKER: JOHN ROBSON
University of Waikato
New Zealand
Cook the Map Maker

11:00 – 11:15 REFRESHMENTS

11:15 – 12:15 SPEAKER: CHARLES STIRLING
Head Newfoundland & Labrador District
Office, Canadian Hydrographic Service.
James Cook, The Great Newfoundland
Survey, The Means Of Directing Many In The Right Way

12:30 – 2:00 LUNCH – There are many good restaurants in the area

2:00 – 2:15 CAPTAIN COOK AWARD, MUN GEOGRAPHY DEPT. Presented by Dr. Charles Mather, Head, to Christina Pretty and Daniel Downey

2:15 -3:15 SPEAKER: GARY SMITH
Canadian Hydrographic Service
Sailing Directions of Newfoundland and Labrador
Captain Cook to Present Day

