

The Devon–Newfoundland Story
Devon County Hall, Exeter
April 8–9, 2017

Speakers and Titles

Prof. Peter Pope (Memorial U.) (keynote lecture)
'Devon and Newfoundland: Myth and History'

William Gilbert (BTHC, Carbonear, Newfoundland)
'Whitbourne, Crout and Berry: Three Devonians in Early Modern Newfoundland'.

Dr Todd Gray (Exeter U.)
'Devon's coastal fisheries and the Atlantic expansion to Newfoundland, 1500 – 1650'

Prof. Olaf Janzen (Memorial U.)
'Devonshire, Iberia, and the logic of the trade in Newfoundland saltfish.'

Paul Wilson and Marilyn Tucker (Wren Music, Devon)
Devon/Newfoundland folk music connections

Dr Jonathan Roper (Tartu U.)
'Songs collected in Newfoundland in the 1920's from a man whose grandfather was born in Moretonhampstead, and discussing the Old World and New World sides of his repertoire.'

Jim Payne (Newfoundland)
'Closer To The Floor: An Illustrated Look at the Development of Old World Folk Dance Traditions in Newfoundland'.

Chris Brookes (Newfoundland) The Newfoundland mumming tradition.

Prof. Barry Gaulton (Memorial U.) (keynote lecture)
'Exploring Devon–Newfoundland connections through 25 years of archaeology at Ferryland'

Prof. Jerry Bannister (Dalhousie U.)
'The place of Devon in the writing of Newfoundland history'.

Prof. John Widdowson (Sheffield U.)
'Some West Country lexical elements in Newfoundland English'

John Allan/Sadie Green (Devon)
Aspects of the pottery trade between Devon and Newfoundland.

Short contributions. Dr Jenny Moon (Bournemouth U.) title to be provided, and Dr John Crellin (Memorial U. and Totnes): 'Revisiting 'Home Medicine: The Newfoundland Experience' from a Devon Perspective.'